Time to report to me

Talking about a duration

I have had the same hairdresser for 3 years (duration)
since I moved to Bordeaux (date)

it is not over  Present perfect (Have/has + PP)

I worked for that company for 10 years (between 2010 and 2020)

it is over  Past simple

Ask your partner:

- Have you given a talk in English before?
- What is important?
- What should you avoid?

What makes a good introduction?

What you say...

Can you put the steps in a logical order?

- outlining the objectives of the talk
- giving definitions and examples to illustrate the topic
- identifying a specific problem / question
- connecting with your audience
- announcing the general topic of your presentation
- justifying the importance of your topic

For example...

connecting with your audience

announcing the general topic of your presentation

justifying the importance of your topic

giving definitions and examples to illustrate your topic

identifying a specific problem/ question related to your topic outlining the objectives of your talk

connecting with your audience

Good afternoon. Ok, how many people here take some kind of exercise on a regular basis?

announcing the general topic of your presentation

I'm going to talk to you about the determinants, or factors, influencing whether or not people engage in physical activity. What is that, what is it that makes some people maintain an active lifestyle and not others?

justifying the importance of your topic

Now, these determinants are particularly important for health professionals to understand because they provide an indication of what it is that increases the likelihood of people actually sticking to or avoiding physical activity

giving definitions and examples to illustrate the topic

What do I mean about physical activity? Well, it includes any.... like, for example...

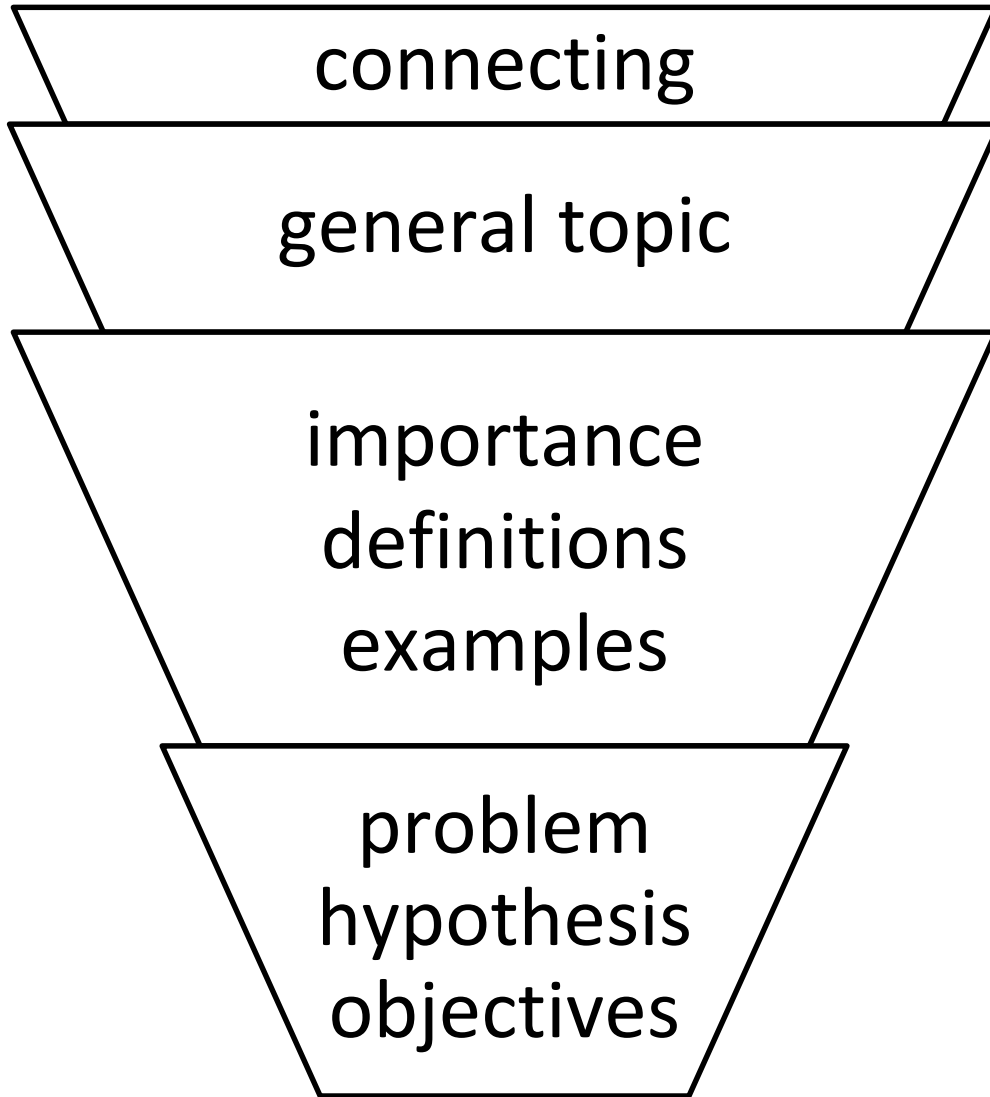

identifying a specific issue / problem /question related to your talk

What I am particularly interested in examining is ...

giving an outline of your presentation

now as we only have about five minutes I won't be able to go into a lot of detail and unfortunately we won't be able to investigate all ... I'll give you a useful overview ofso firstly I'd like to tell you a little more about, secondly, we'll be looking at and then...

a good introduction

specific

How you say it...

- How can you make your message clear?
- Visuals
- Non-verbals...
- Voice
 - Chunking
 - Intonation
 - Stress

1. Where would you pause?
 - segment information, word groups, slow down
2. Where would your voice go up? and down?
incomplete, uncertain, open finished, certain, closed
3. Which words would you stress?
 - key words, surprising words, important information

STARTING OUT	Our topic today is...	First of all,...
	What we are going to focus on in this presentation is....	XX are what I want to focus on in this presentation
	As most of you know, X is a major problem for...	So what do we know about...?
	There are two key questions that we need to address...	You may know that... but what you might not know is that...
	I'd like to begin by discussing X
TRANSITIONS	Let's turn now to...	So what's the logical next step here?
	With this is mind, let's move on now to...	I'd like now to look at X in more detail
REFERRING TO VISUALS	If you look at the figure on the right of the slide you will note....	On the next slide, you will notice that...
	Here, on the slide, you can see...
GIVING EXAMPLES	Now, to give you an example...	One example of this could be...
	In other words...	To illustrate this point...
RECAPPING EXPLAINING	As I've just mentioned...	What particularly interests me is...
	Let's consider this point in more detail...	So how can we explain this...?
COMPARING CONTRASTING	These results, however, tell a very different story	If we compare these two images we see that...
	Here, in this area you can see... whereas here you can see...	So how do the two methods compare?
		In contrast...
CONCLUDING	To conclude...	One final question that is worth raising is that...
	I'd like to round up by giving...	So, if you have any questions I'd be happy to answer them.
